

n TWELVE-YEAR-OLD Zachary Borkovic's journey into eco-entrepreneurship began at age three when he asked: "Dad, do the things we put in the water hurt the fish and other animals?" The answer was yes, and Borkovic wanted to help. By 2006, he'd recycled enough pop cans to earn money to set up son-and-pop shop Earth Spirit Natural Home. This natural products emporium offers certified organic and sustainable products that pamper skin, hair, body—and the planet. Find it in Cowichan Bay Village at Earth Spirit Eco-Centre, C-1681 Cowichan Bay Rd., 250-701-9170, earthspiritcatalogue.com; in Calgary, natural body products at All Things Jill, 877-283-5455, allthingsjill.com—Adrienne Dyer
